

Daily Prayer

Lord I have faith, help me believe
Lord I have opened my eyes, help me to see

Grant that I may live as you live and love as you love
May I be a good and compassionate being

Help me to cast aside illusion and delusion, ignorance and arrogance
Give me the strength and discipline that I need
Help me to be wise, and may my spirit burn so bright that it lights the way for others
As well as for myself

Help me to be warm, kind and loving
And to always grow closer to you

Amen
